Yayritza wishes to go to Spain

Yayritza is a sociable 17-year-old from Miami who is battling leukemia. She loves math class, the New York Yankees and reggaeton music. When she was asked what her greatest wish would be, she knew the perfect answer was a family vacation in Spain. She chose Spain because she fell in love with the pictures of her friend's recent trip there. Yayritza is thrilled that her wish will come true because she has not traveled much before and has never been to Europe. Plans are being made to ensure that Yayritza's trip to Barcelona is an unforgettable experience. For 7 days, she and her family will discover the delicious food and exciting culture of Barcelona, Spain's second largest city. The top things on her to-do list in Barcelona are to visit the beautiful cathedrals, eat tapas and possibly catch a bullfight. She looks forward to speaking with the locals in Spanish, her parents' first language. Yayritza can hardly wait to take tons of pictures to remember her vacation in Barcelona, Spain.

Yazan wishes to go to Walt Disney World

Nothing comes close to a magical vacation to Walt Disney World® for a 6-year-old. That's why Yazan from Coral Springs, who has a blood disorder, chose meeting Mickey Mouse as his most heartfelt wish. Besides watching Disney movies, this playful boy loves superheroes, riding his bike and baseball. On April 2nd, Yazan and his family will venture to Orlando. During his 6-day adventure staying at the Give Kids the World Village, Yazan will explore the Magic Kingdom®, Epcot® and Sea World, among other attractions with VIP passes. After each long day at the theme parks, he will play in the arcade. The village's resident rabbits, Mayor Clayton and his wife, will read him a bedtime story to cap off the end of another special day. Yazan will make countless memories on his first-ever journey to Walt Disney World!

Ashley wishes to meet Zack and Cody

Ashley is a charming 17-year-old boy from Miami who is battling leukemia. He loves the Miami Heat, fishing and collecting keys. For his greatest wish, Ashley would like the chance to meet his favorite television stars from "The Suite Life of Zack and Cody." He watches the show every day and it would make him very happy to meet Dylan and Cole Sprouse, the 14-year-old twins who play the title characters. Plans are being made for Ashley to get his wish come true! The meeting may take place at the set of Ashley's favorite television show in California. Then he would not only meet his favorite actors but also watch a taping of "The Suite Life of Zack and Cody." He is already making a list of questions that he wants to ask when his wish day comes. Ashley can't wait to take pictures with the stars and get autographs that he will cherish forever!

Katelynn wishes to meet Johnny Knoxville

Katelynn is a 13-year-old from Lighthouse Point who is battling ovarian cancer. She loves listening to music on her iPod, playing softball and watching reality television. Katelynn's greatest wish is to meet Johnny Knoxville, because through all her treatments and doctors visits, he makes her laugh the most. Plans are being made for Katelynn to meet her favorite actor, who has starred in movies such as "Jackass" and "The Dukes of Hazzard." She is so excited to get her wish because in her wildest dreams she never thought she would meet a celebrity. She is thinking of all the questions she wants to ask her favorite funny guy but most of all she wants to thank him for making her laugh. Katelynn can hardly wait to meet Johnny Knoxville!

Destynee's wish to meet Corbin Bleu

To 5-year-old Destynee from Hollywood, there is no greater wish than meeting Disney Channel star Corbin Bleu. Destynee, who has sickle cell anemia, absolutely adores Corbin, who played Chad in "High School Musical." Plans are being made for Destynee to meet Corbin, her favorite actor, this April in Orlando. Destynee and her family will have time for some extra fun at the theme parks during their 4-day stay in Orlando. This outgoing girl loves to jump rope and that's exactly what she wants to do with Corbin, who plays a young boxer that discovers his hidden talent for jump roping in the movie "Jump In!" Destynee will make memories that she will cherish forever when she meets Corbin Bleu!

Jasmine wishes to go to Walt Disney World

Jasmine is a loving 4-year-old from Coral Springs who is living with cerebral palsy. Her favorite things are nursery rhymes, Mickey Mouse and giving hugs! Her greatest wish is to go to Walt Disney World® because she has always dreamed of meeting all the Disney characters. Plans are being made for Jasmine to have a fun-filled 6-day vacation to Orlando. While participating in the Give Kids the World program, Jasmine and her family will enjoy VIP passes to the Magic Kingdom®, Epcot® and Sea World, among other attractions. What is the first thing Jasmine plans on doing when her adventure begins? Hugging all of her Disney friends of course!
